

Risk Assessment for Beeline Assault Course 9th March 2023

	Possible Outcome	Who is at risk	Level of risk	Action Taken	New level of risk
Users Bumping into each other	Cuts, Bruises, Bumps etc	Public/ users	Medium	Only allow the correct amount of users on at any one time	Low
People falling off the inflatable	Injuries	users	Medium	-Constant supervision by Operator -safety mats placed at entrance of unit -Supervisor prevent over crowding	Low
Inflatable blowing away or tipping over	Cuts, Bruises, Bumps, injuries etc.	Users	High	Make sure unit is staked down, put down in wind or wind gusts of 24mph. Do not go above	Low
Collisions with other participants	Cuts, bruises, bumps etc	users	Medium	-Do not allow overcrowding and make sure users are of similar build	Low
Tripping over mains cable	Slips, falls, trips, bumps and bruises etc	Public	Medium	-Area to be checked before session -Ensure cables are up high or if on floor rubber trunking or matting must be used	Low
Burns from slide	Friction burn	Users	Medium	-Supervisor to check users are wearing suitable clothing and advise users.	Low
Users falling onto spectators	Injury	Users/public	Medium	-Suitable supervision by operator - If busy use safety fencing to create enough distance between users and spectators.	Low
Injury through jumping from top of slide to bottom	Injury	Users	Medium	-Supervisor to ensure users are not jumping from the top to the bottom	Low
Unauthorised users jumping on unit	Injury	Public	Medium	-If busy event use suitable crowd control barriers,	Low
Users performing tricks	Injury	Users	Medium	-Constant supervision by Beeline Trained operator	Low

Assessor	Lee Hayward
Date Assessed	9 th March 2023
Review Date	Every 12 months next review 8 th March 2024

