

Risk Assessment for Bee-line Area 51 Laser Tag 9th March 2023

Hazard	Possible Outcome	Who is at risk	Level of risk	Action Taken	New level of risk
Users bouncing into each other	Cuts, Bruises, Bumps etc	Users	Medium	Operator to explain rules before the group enters the pod	Low
Trapped inside	Injuries	Users	Medium	-Constant supervision and instruction from operators -Operator to explain where the emergency exits are to the pod	Low
Over excited users	Cuts, Bruises, Bumps etc	Users	Medium	Ensure users are warned as they enter Do not allow running around the pod	Low
Collisions with other participants	Cuts, bruises, bumps etc	Users	Medium	-Only allow correct number of users in at a time, during demo make sure all are aware not to run.	Low
Tripping over mains cable	Slips, falls, trips, bumps and bruises etc	Users	Medium	-Make sure the cables are laid tidy and the supply is coming in from the back or along a fence line to avoid trip hazards.	Low
Users hitting each other with guns	Injury	Users	Medium	-Operator to explain all the rules before users enter. NON COMBART SPOPRT	Low
Wind Speed	Injuries, bumps and bruises	Users/Public	Medium	-Make sure the item is securely tethered to the ground. As per HSE regulation -No one is allowed on the inflatable during winds or gusts of 24mph. If winds and gusts reach 24mph then the inflatable will be deflated until it is safe for users to go back on -Wind will be measured at regular intervals using the met office App or at intervals with and anemometer	Low

Risk Assessment for Bee-line Area 51 Laser Tag 9th March 2023

Assessor	Lee Hayward
Date Assessed	9 th March 2023
Review Date	Every 12 months next review 8 th March 2024

6 Withrick Walk, St Osyth, Essex, CO16 8RD, Tel: 0800-083-0350, Email- info@bee-line.org.uk website – www.bee-line.org.uk